- Mendocino East and West at Vineyards:
Condominiums
- Napa at Vineyards:
Carriage homes

What community amenities are available and is there a fee to use them?

There is an optional $18.75/month clubhouse and amenities fee, with a one-time fee of $100.00. Should you choose to join and pay these fees, you will have access and shared use of the community's ...

- Clubhouse with fitness center, lounge area and billiards
- Outdoor saltwater pool
- Lakeview terrace with fire pit and BBQ
- Bocce, horseshoe courts and beach volleyball
- Canine Corral (dog park)
- Walking and biking paths
- Lake Harmony
- Fishing pier, kayaks and pedal boats

Our wonderful amenities offer plenty of opportunities for fun, social interactions — make new friends, host get-togethers and enjoy many outdoor activities all within the Vineyards community.

Are more amenities planned?

Yes, a second larger clubhouse and pool are some of the future amenities planned for Vineyards.*

How close are the beaches?

Vineyards is four miles from Lewes and five miles from both Rehoboth Beach and Cape Henlopen State Park.

Is Vineyards located on an operating vineyard?

The Vineyards community sits on a quiet parcel of land formerly owned by the adjacent Nassau Valley Vineyards, Delaware's first and only award-winning winery.

Do the homes have basements?

All our single-family detached homes come with a full, poured-concrete unfinished basement. If you prefer, the home can be built on a slab.

All information accurate as of June 2020.

All fees are subject to change.

*Some amenities need not be built.

What type of heat source is used in the homes?

All homes include high-efficiency natural gas heating and cooking.

How much are the taxes?

The estimated taxes vary by neighborhood. Currently estimated taxes for single-family homes in Monterey West are $1,400-$1,700/year; for a condominium in Mendocino East or West, $800-$1000/year; and for a carriage home in Napa, an estimated $1,000-$1,200/year. The taxes are very affordable because of Delaware's low property tax rate. Delaware also has no sales tax and consistently ranks as one of the most tax-friendly states.

What is a leasehold?

Vineyards condominiums and carriage homes are leasehold. You lease the land on which your condominium sits, and benefit from a lower purchase price.

Are there any additional fees?

Yes. In addition to the optional amenities fee, the following apply:

Single-Family Homes:

$132.05/month, which includes the Vineyards Master Association Dues and Single-Family (Condominium Ownership) Association Dues.

Condominiums:

$431.08/month, which includes the Land Lease, Vineyards Master Association Dues and Condominium Ownership Association Dues.

Carriage Homes:

$382.49/month, which includes the Land Lease, Vineyards Master Association Dues and the Carriage Home (Condominium Ownership) Association Dues.
